UPCOMING AREA JAZZ EVENTS

Sat., February 11, 8:00 — Just Jazz: singer Mariana Soñol & Her Big Band
Sun., February 12, 1:00 — Midway Point Music: “Ricardo Lew / Nestor Tedesco: Panorama”
Mon., February 13, 7:00 — Referred to as “creative, versatile” by The Beast, saxophonist Paquito D’Rivera is one of the greats. He’s a trumpet player, composer, and bandleader who has worked with many jazz legends. His new album, “Tres Sabores,” features a blend of Latin, American, and African music. The album is available worldwide at www.paqmusic.com and can be streamed on Spotify, Apple Music, and other digital platforms.

Jeremy Jenkins: The Beast (CD) — Clearly inspired by the seminal hard bop of Art Blakey’s Jazz Messengers, this is a powerful new release by Jenkins and his colleagues, including the eminent bassist Christian McBride, presenting a strong program of well-chosen material. The album features guest artists such as Terence Blanchard, Chris Botti, andvez, and members of the recording collective “The Messengers.”

RECOMMENDED INTERNET JAZZ RADIO

Monday-Friday 6:00-10:00 p.m. WRNJ 104.7 & 92.7 FM and 1510 AM

Saturday 8:00-10:00 p.m. WRNJ 104.7 & 92.7 FM and 1510 AM

Sunday 8:00-10:00 p.m. WRNJ 104.7 & 92.7 FM and 1510 AM

• Streaming live at jazzbob.com

January-February 2017

The name it says all...