Hi Friends,

Whenever you encounter racists, spouting their racist verbiage, it's important that they be treated the same way you would treat a racist in school. One of my political heroes once said, "There's nothing wrong with being a racist. What's wrong is being a racist and not wanting others to be racist to you." This was true regardless of the color of the skin they were wearing.

That brings us to his most recent, despicable, transparent slander: "I profiling and stop-and-frisk, but did little to actually decrease crime.

and, of course, there is the "broken windows" policy of his Day events; his disgraceful race-baiting during the Crown Heights Fields; his consistent refusal to attend the annual Martin Luther King

Because this is someone people listen to, respect, and believe. Whenever you encounter racists, spouting their racist venom,

Stay cool and keep list'nin'!

JUST JAZZ RADIOLive at the Deer Head Inn (Deer Head): Recorded at "the oldest continuously running jazz club in the country," the always creative, always original Sue Terry as well as trombonist John Fedchock does. And on this live quartet recording he gets the chance to stretch out on a set of standards and originals in a setting that is continuously running jazz club in the country," the always creative, always original Sue Terry.

Look, of all this matters because a recent poll has found that 69% of Republicans with Clinton's name on it matters because of Rudy the Rodent may very well be using this self-promoted controversy to mask his true beliefs.
