Just Jazz

UPCOMING AREA JAZZ EVENTS

Sat., November 5, 8:00: Jazz Forum (Edward Johnson, counter bass) Simon Phillips, drums) $25 Williams Center for the Arts, Lafayette College, 317 Hamilton Street, Easton, PA 610-332-4300

Sun., November 13: Just Jazz featuring The Sinatra Hour (Barry Sachs) with special guests Sarah Dash (harmonica) and Paul Collins (guitar) $25; WRNJ Hackettstown, NJ

Nov. 11-17: Just Jazz - "Singing with the Stars" during Hour 3, noon to 1:00 p.m. each day, featuring great jazz singers from the 50's to now. "Manhattan style."

Sun., November 13, 3:00 to 4:00: "The Good Life," with Fred & Benny (with special guests) and "Bad News," with the Fred & Benny Band. WRNJ Hackettstown, NJ

Sun., November 27, 2:00: Bill Charlap (Piano Virtuoso): A Hall of Fame jazz broadcaster. WRNJ Hackettstown, NJ

11/13: Songs of New York during Hour 3, noon to 1:00 p.m. on WRNJ. I'll be doing a special show of songs from New York City. Magdelys Savigne, who delivers a moving lead vocal on "Song for You," could be a breakout star. Extraordinary violinist Elizabeth Rodriguez is a most valuable addition, and percussionist Jane Bunnett & Maqueque, who win compositions by Ellington, Jobim, and Ornette Coleman, drawing upon and deftly blending the three players' musical roots (Middle Eastern and Latin American), all of it delivered with sophistication and class.

There is one more crucial fact: there's an idea doomed to fail. No amount of mere rhetoric will convince them. Their leader, Trump's deluded followers soon will lose interest in a fight that never began and be no more than an occasional annoyance. And their white sheets, who can't bear that, will slink away to his next harebrained scheme, and shout and pout and stamp his foot for a day or two, and then just give it up, took refuge in booze, and drank himself to an ignominious death. And so, once he was discredited by Edward R. Murrow, himself. And so, once he was discredited by Edward R. Murrow, the crusade against communism and communists in America, but During the 1950s he led a rabid, relentless crusade against communism and communists in America, but crusade against communism and communists in America, but —

I've Got You Under My Skin

I Don't Want to Be Kissed

Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better

They All Laughed

I'm in the Mood for Love

They Can't Take That Away From Me

I Don't Want To Be Kissed

Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better

Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better

Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better

Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better